Information about the meeting

This is a friendly, relatively informal meeting where you can meet and discuss your work. It's a great platform for students or early career scientists to gain experience in polishing off presentation skills before attending any international conferences. There will be a wide variety of talks covering climate change and veterinary parasitology.

A prize will be presented for the best student oral presentation.

Refreshments: Tea and Coffee will be provided during the meeting.

There will be an evening meal on 10th December at Jamie's Italian restaurant (not included in the registration fee).
